

2021-2022 ANNUAL REPORT

FORT WAYNE MUSEUM OF ART

Dear Friends,

The lead up to the Fort Wayne Museum of Art's 100th anniversary gave us the opportunity to reflect on the evolution of this institution, and its place within, and impact on, our community. At its core and most basic function, a museum exists to preserve and display artists' work, but beyond that, it also has the power to educate and inspire us, to challenge us and open our minds, and to bring both residents and visitors together. So, as we've watched the transformation of our city over the past century, we've also watched FWMoA grow and evolve with it as a reflection of our community.

Looking ahead to the next 100 years for the Fort Wayne Museum of Art, I'm incredibly optimistic. We continue to grow and strengthen the collection as well as our reputation within glass. We also endeavor to stretch ourselves with new and different ways of exhibiting art and connecting with patrons, all while remaining true to our mission. This museum would not be possible without the support of our community of members and guests, and for that I would like to thank you on behalf of the Board of Directors. We appreciate you being part of FWMoA's vibrant history and its brilliant future.

Ryan Fox
Incoming Chair, Board of Directors

In honor of the museum's 100th anniversary celebrated throughout 2021, we made two major purchases to support the growth of our contemporary glass sculpture collection. With generous donations from many supporters, we purchased Bulgarian-American artist Latchezar Boyadjiev's 6-foot tall cast glass sculpture Embrace (cover) and American artist Alex Bernstein's 8-foot wide cast and cut glass sculpture Crystal City (below).

Strategic Goals 2021-2026

Collections

- Expand public access to the collection.
- Build the strength of the collection.

Programs

- Emphasize the collection in public programming.
- Invest in long-term virtual programs.
- Forge stronger relationships with young adults.

Facility

- Consider the feasibility of building expansion.

Our Vision for the Future

To be the best nationally accredited Art Museum of our size, while serving the broadest array of constituencies in northern Indiana.

Mission

The Fort Wayne Museum of Art will collect, preserve, and present American and related art to engage and educate broad and diverse audiences throughout the region to add value to their lives.

Finance

- Create a Facilities Fund of at least $250,000 by 2022.
- Add $4 million to the Endowment by 2023.
- Reach $2.5 million operating budget by 2026.
- Maintain a Collections Fund of at least $500,000.

Community

- Be a vital and welcoming arts institution in the community.

What We Value Most

Believing that art is a meaningful part of our lives, we value: Inclusiveness, Dialogue, Education, and Sound Stewardship.

Skateboarding enthusiasts enjoyed a rare treat: skateboarding in the museum! On opening weekend of The Art of the Skateboard in March 2022, FWMoA hosted an open skate night for the community to skate in the custom-built skate park designed by Fort Wayne's Slam City Skatepark and artist Dennis McNett.

What we're most proud of this year: Exhibitions

A Love of Light: The Fendel/Rosenbach Collection

July 24 - October 3, 2021

In our 100th year, we are grateful to the Estate of Sylvia Fendel for a gift of 32 glass sculptures which honors Sylvia Fendel, Yale Fendel, and Max Rosenbach. This gift marks the first of its kind to join the FWMoA glass collection. Artists in the collection include Dale Chihuly, Toots Zynski, Richard Ritter, Robin Grebe, Latchezar Boyadjiev, and many others.

Some People I Admire: Steve Linn's Documentary Sculpture

September 11 - November 28, 2022

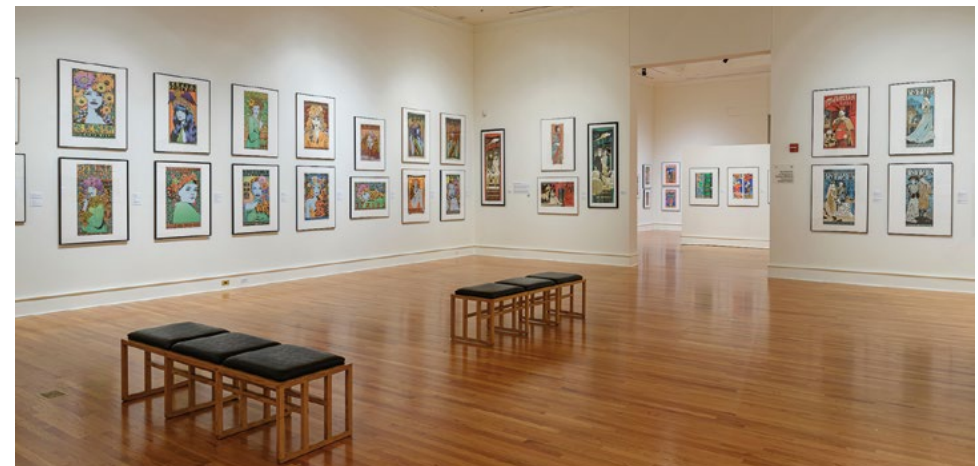

Throughout his career of more than 50 years, Steve Linn has been a figurative and narrative sculptor celebrating extraordinary people. In this exhibition, Linn presented sculptures of glass, wood, aluminum and other materials and techniques that pay homage to illustrious figures he admires, from Kara Walker and Stephen Hawking to Ai Wei Wei.

Saint & Shepherds: New Work by Hebru Brantley

December 4, 2021 - March 6, 2022

Saints & Shepherds exhibited contemporary art world star Hebru Brantley's latest work, an exploration of modern day mythology through a contemporary Afro-Futuristic lens. In Brantley's 'Negros Mythos' world, heroes can be both saints, the outliers, and shepherds, the purveyors of culture.

Color X Color: Selections from the Chuck Sperry Archive

April 23 - July 10, 2022

Chuck Sperry's illustrious rock poster career has spanned over 25 years. During that time, Sperry has printed thousands of posters for hundreds of bands. He has traveled the world, displaying his posters everywhere from dive bars to galleries in Europe, New York, and California. This exhibition featured over 150 works that are now in the Chuck Sperry Archive at FWMoA.

Alphonse Mucha: Master of Art Nouveau

June 5 - September 26, 2021

Alphonse Mucha is most often remembered for the prominent role he played in shaping the aesthetics of French Art Nouveau at the turn of the 20th century. The Dhawan Collection, Los Angeles, CA, is one of the finest private collections of Mucha's work in the United States. Presented in this exhibition were 75 works by Mucha including rare original lithographs and proofs, an oil painting, drawings, a pastel, and books, posters, portfolios and ephemera.

A Sense of Place: Abstract Art in Northern Indiana | December 4, 2021 - March 13, 2022

This exhibition sought to highlight the beauty and meaning of abstract art—art that relies on the expressive qualities of color and non-representational marks to convey meaning. Artists featured were Bob Cross, Michael Poorman, Austin Cartwright, Audrey Riley, Mary Pat Wallen, Kaylee Dalton, Jay Zerbe, Theoplis Smith, Justin Johnson, Monika Meler, Sayaka Ganz, Jake Webster, and George Morrison.

A Place Away: Martina Lopez

October 2 - December 12, 2022

Martina Lopez has been working with the figure in the landscape with the aid of digital media since 1985. Elements of the family photograph, the landscape and electronic media remain prevalent in her work. She incorporates images of other families to create a collective history, one which would allow individuals to bring their own memories to her work.

Dazzle, Pattern, Color, Bling: The Alluring Patterns of Liz Quisgard

December 18, 2021 - February 27, 2022

Dazzle, Pattern, Color, Bling: The Alluring Patterns of Liz Quisgard brought together works from the last several decades of Quisgard's career – precise paintings inspired by Byzantine architectural elements and Oriental rugs and wood-turned sculptures embellished with complex geometric patterns. Quisgard's most recent work is in fiber, meticulously created in intricate geometric and organic shapes in yarn on fabric.

America the Beautiful: Photographs by Clyde Butcher

October 9, 2021 - January 30, 2022

Clyde Butcher is an acclaimed photographer who has made it his mission to photograph and document wild and natural places across America for the last 50 years. He grew up in California and later relocated to Florida, finding peace and his life's mission within the Everglades. His photographs reveal wild and natural places where few humans have ventured, with images capturing remarkable solitude and wonder.

The Art of the Skateboard

March 19 - June 12, 2022

The roots of skateboarding appear in the 1950s when surfers applied the idea of surfing to the streets. In the 1980s, skateboarding coincided with the punk rock scene, and skateboarding once again took to the streets, this time reborn bigger and better. The art, the tricks, the equipment, and the personalities of this time made this the golden era of skateboarding. This 4-gallery exhibition explored the history, culture, and aesthetics of skateboarding past and present, with art and decks from skateboarders and a custom-designed indoor, working skatepark.

What we're most proud of this year:

Programming and Partnerships

The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards remains one of our most meaningful programs for creative teens to earn recognition and enjoy the exhibition of their award-winning art and writing at the Fort Wayne Museum of Art. In 2022, 2,447 works of art and writing were submitted for competition by 1,150 teens across Northern Indiana and Northwest Ohio, with 483 students earning an Honorable Mention, Silver Key, or Gold Key. Twenty-five national medals were awarded to local students whose Gold Keys qualified them for competition on the national stage.

The 2022 Scholastic National Awards were given out in New York City and two local students, Jared Sagan from Homestead High School and Natalie Timmerman from Ottawa Hills High School, joined our education team for the announcements.

The annual Día de los Muertos celebration at FWMoA was again cancelled in 2021 due to the coronavirus pandemic. In place of a single ofrenda, we worked with Vincennes-based artist Fernando Lozano to display the exhibition We Remember. In this exhibition, Lozano created an installation honoring those who lost their lives to Covid-19 from around the country. In the words of Lozano, "Día de los Muertos, the tradition where we remember our loved ones, is also the time that allows you to say goodbye to those lost. For this reason, I am giving the entire country the chance to remember their loved ones."

Fernando Lozano: We Remember was on display at the Fort Wayne Museum of Art from October 1 - November 28, 2021. Along with a video of survivors and loved ones of those who passed from Covid-19, displays of the death tolls by state and territory lined the room as mini altars to those lost. La Catrina presided over the entire exhibit in silence.

We were back to filling Main Street with colorful art and robust community during the 2022 Chalk Walk on July 9 and 10! While last year we limited squares to half their normal amount, this year we were back to full capacity. With categories like "Under the Sea" and "Ode to Indiana," there was a lot of color on Main Street. Not a drop in the forecast and mild temperatures meant the Fort Wayne community showed up to welcome back the chalkers and encourage them all to create beautiful scenes.

"Being one of the most cherished and valued assets in our community, the Fort Wayne Museum of Art has been a recognized and established catalyst for the downtown renaissance and a regional attraction. During the museum's 100-year history it has inspired, educated and served diverse audiences through its exhibitions, educational programming and community leadership. By including the museum in our estate plan we can help sustain the museum's mission and benefit future generations. We strongly encourage others to do the same."

- John and Mary Brandt

"We strongly believe the arts are an integral part of life in our community.

The Fort Wayne Museum of Art is a valuable cultural resource that offers us a rich physical and social environment in which all can experience and engage. By joining the Thieme Society we know that we are helping to sustain the museum's future and advancing its work in Fort Wayne and the surrounding area."

- Herb and Carole Fuller

To honor those who are planning a future gift to us, we have created a circle of friends known as the Thieme Society. Members of the Thieme Society enjoy special recognition (or anonymity) in donor publications and are invited to exclusive events at the museum. Gifts large and small are essential to the long-term vitality of the museum. If you have planned a future gift in your estate or will, please let us know. If not, we hope you may consider doing so.

Docent Spotlight - Joan Bovee

Joan Bovee has had the longest tenure of any FWMoA Docent, volunteering since roughly 2006. In our new annual tradition of awarding pins to docents for their years of service, Joan is the only one to receive the coveted rainbow pin, signifying her commitment of over 15 years. by assisting with the Scholastic Awards, recognizing the importance for, as she says, “the kids that are artistic and creative need a place to excel and to show off that’s not with a ball or a bat.”

Volunteer Docent Joan Bovee.

A glass artist and owner of Hickory Island Gallery in Wolcottville, Joan spent much of her career teaching home economics. She helped train new teachers at Ball State and Indiana Universities during the summer, and even helped educational psychologist Howard Gardner with his research on multiple intelligences. Joan brings this wealth of knowledge and experience to her role as a docent, which she approaches as a storyteller, sharing the stories behind artworks and helping our visitors craft their own.

Volunteering affords the docents an opportunity for lifelong learning; Joan says, “You never stop learning and you never stop giving. You try new things all the time, and the kids force me to try new things.”
