Northeast Indiana and Northwest Ohio Students Announced
as 2024 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards Regional Winners

506 Young Artists and Writers Recognized by the Fort Wayne Museum of Art for their Original Works

February 8, 2024 (Fort Wayne, IN) – The Fort Wayne Museum of Art has announced the regional award winners of the 2024 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards. Presented by the nonprofit organization the Alliance for Young Artists & Writers, the 101st Scholastic Art & Writing Awards are the country's longest-running and most prestigious scholarship and recognition program for creative students in grades 7–12. This year, nearly 100,000 teens from across the United States and Canada submitted their best art and writing. 506 creative teens from Northeast Indiana and Northwest Ohio received regional honors, including Gold Keys, Silver Keys, Honorable Mentions, and American Visions & Voices nominations, from local Scholastic Awards Affiliate the Fort Wayne Museum of Art.

The following ten students—five artists and five writers—received the top regional honor, the American Visions & Voices nomination, signifying their work as best-in-show.

Receiving a Gold Key and American Visions Nomination for their artwork:

- Sawyer Carl, Grade 8, Riverview Middle School. Hot Air Balloon. Photography.
- Michelle Chupp, Grade 11, Carroll High School. The Bee's Escape. Mixed Media.
- Gillian Davies, Grade 11, Bryan Middle-High School. Algorithm. Painting.
- Lauren Finley, Grade 10, Carroll High School. Scrapped Memories. Fashion.
- Monica Wojewuczki, Grade 12, Canterbury High School. Embrace. Painting.

Receiving a Gold Key and American Voices Nomination for their writing:

- Isabella Ambrose, Grade 12, Homestead High School. A Wooden Nickel in My Pocket. Journalism.
- Karen Chen, Grade 12, Maumee Valley Country Day School. Almost Winter. Poetry.
- Joylynn Chung, Grade 10, Culver Academy. Dis Manibus. Personal Essay & Memoir.
- Madison Dhoore, Grade 12, La Porte High School. The Dairy Queen Drive Thru. Personal Essay & Memoir.
- Finn Schmidt, Grade 8, Trinity Lutheran School. The Narrative of Ida Wright. Short Story.

In celebration of this year's regional award winners, the Fort Wayne Museum of Art will host an Open House Celebration on Sunday, February 18th from 12pm-5pm with free admission.

The exhibition of awarded works will be on display at FWMoA from February 10 – April 7 in the Museum's galleries at 311 E. Main Street. General admission to see this exhibition at the museum is free for FWMoA members, $10 adults, $8 students and seniors 65+, and $25 for families. General admission is free for everyone on Thursdays 5-8pm. Veterans, active military personnel, and their families receive free general admission. FWMoA gallery hours are Tuesday-Saturday 10-6pm, Thursdays 10-8pm, and Sundays 12-5pm.

Note: This exhibition will be closed to the public February 26 – March 4 for the ARTrageous Gala and Auction fundraiser as well as March 31 for the Easter holiday.

Since the program's founding in 1923, the Awards have fostered the creativity and talent of millions of students and include a distinguished list of alumni such as Tschabalala Self, Stephen King, Kay WalkingStick, Charles White, Joyce Carol Oates, and Andy Warhol, all of whom received recognition in the Awards when they were teens.

For Gold Key works of art and writing in the Awards' 28 categories—including architecture, painting, flash fiction, poetry, printmaking, science fiction & fantasy, and more—the opportunities for recognition will continue when the works are considered for national honors, including a wealth of additional opportunities, such as scholarships, inclusion in the Scholastic Awards Traveling Exhibition, and in anthologies Best Teen Art and Best Teen Writing. Poets who win national awards are considered for the National Student Poets Program, the nation's highest honor for young poets presenting original work. National awards will be announced on June 12, 2024.

QUOTES:

"Over their long history, the Scholastic Awards have not only provided important opportunities, but proved an essential source of validation for so many creative teens. Whether or not the award recipients decide to pursue careers in the arts, their proven ability to innovate and express their unique perspectives in universal ways will carry them into their chosen fields. Each year, the museum staff, the jurors who select the awarded works, and our wider community are blown away by the creativity of our region's teens and the educators who help nurture it," said Alyssa Dumire, director of education at the Fort Wayne Museum of Art.

About the Fort Wayne Museum of Art: Beginning with art classes in 1888 given by J. Ottis Adams and later William Forsyth, the Fort Wayne Museum of Art has evolved into the primary resource for the visual arts in Northeast Indiana. Regularly exhibiting regional and nationally acclaimed artists, the FWMoA also boasts an extensive permanent collection of American Art, including the Steven Sorman Archives and more than 350 pieces of glass sculpture. The Museum is committed to the collection, preservation, presentation and interpretation of American and related art to engage broad and diverse audiences throughout the community and region and add value to their lives. The Fort Wayne Museum of Art is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. This activity is made possible, in part, with support from the Indiana Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.
